

MG-178

WILLIAM JESSUP PAPERS, 1821-53

Correspondence of William Jessup (b. 1797, d. 1868) a Montrose lawyer since 1818. From 1838-51 he was presiding judge of the 11th judicial district. In April 1861 he was one of the committee of three sent by the governors of Penna., Ohio and N.Y. to confer with President Lincoln about the raising of 75,000 men. He was chief founder of the county agricultural Society.

MG 178- WILLIAM JESSUP PAPERS 1821-1853

General Correspondence	Box	Folders
Case, B. T. from A. Jordan 1824, 1851	1	1
Demockjul, Davis from N. B. Eldren 1836		1
Drinker, Henry from Michael Meylert, Henry Yager Michael Wade, N. P. Hospack 1842-43, 1845-46		1
Jessup, William 1821-53, n.d.		17
Meylert, Michael from V. Searee 1842		1
Norris, John from D. Bullock 1830		1
Robinson, John W. from Enoch Walker, E. Kimber 1821-3		1
Seymour, James from J. S. Carpentier 1836		1
Upton, Allen from Irene Churchill 1831, n.d.		1
Wartrous, Joseph from I. Goodfell 1824		1
Weeks, Caleb from David Clany 1832		1
Wynn, William from Mocet Pelham 1838		1