

The widow of Andrew or the children in case of the widow's death, or the beaver fund Logan who appears to have been be his child in case there are no other children - are entitled to a donation of two hundred acres of land from Penna in consequence of the death of the father John Logan who was in the and died in the year 1793 in the late

Britain

W. Hancock
 Secretary
 15. 1793 -