To Hon. Aaron N. Dumke,
Secy. Internal Affairs of Penn.

Co. Surv. for Forest C.

Note. The part which is "Dotted Field," and contains the word occupied is on Vacant Land and was settled subsequent to 1814. (viz. 1879 or '80). There are several dwellings and a boarding house erected thereon, at which and in which reside and board the several persons employed by the Salmon Creek Lumber & Mining Company at their Mills. The improvement is not inclosed by a fence or other defined boundary.
