

A hand-drawn map of a rectangular area, likely a plot or field. The rectangle has a jagged, torn-like appearance along its top edge. Inside the rectangle, several labels are present:

- At the top left, above the jagged edge, is the number (190) .
- At the top right, above the jagged edge, is the label $W. W.$ with a diagonal line through it.
- On the right side, vertically, is the label $N. b. W. 136$.
- On the far right edge, vertically, is the name Robert Carter.
- Inside the rectangle, near the center-right, are the labels 20° , $James$, $Tho. C.$, and $W.$ arranged vertically.
- At the bottom right, inside the rectangle, is the label Longhorn.
- At the bottom left, inside the rectangle, is the label Obliterated, written diagonally.
- At the very bottom center, below the jagged edge, is the label $E. 336$.
