

N^o. 5. Mr. Ingersoll's Letter to Mr. Dallas, advising of him to delay issuing patents on my Claims 'til he should have further opportunity of conversing with Mr. Symonds?

N^o. 6 & 7. Mr. Symonds's Letter to the Secretary — and the Secretary's Letter to the Officers of the Land Office, before alluded to Thus, Sir, as far as in my power, I have placed the subject before you. I conceive myself entitled to the immediate issue of patents except only so far as "barred by legal impediments." The Suggestions by Mr. Symonds, Mr. Ingersoll and Mr. Dallas, I hold not to be of this description. To you, Sir, as the Chief Magistrate of a great State I appeal for justice, fair and full justice; I hope I shall always be found to act too consistently to ask for more, and am sure you will not wish me or any other fair and innocent purchaser to be passively content with less.

I have the honor to be

Sir

with the truest respect and Esteem

Yours

Christian Hubart

Obedient & humble Servant

Dan. Woodhead.

His Excellency
Governor Mifflin.
